PAST EVENTS

We joyously celebrated the Holi festival at MPAD organization, surrounded by family and dear friends. The event was filled with vibrant colors, dance, and music. Ladies and children enthusiastically participated in cultural activities, while everyone engaged in fun games and entertaining competitions. The delicious food added to the festive spirit, making it a memorable celebration

MPAD hosted an eagerly anticipated Dal-Bafale picnic party, bringing together its members and their cherished families."Dal Bafale, a beloved authentic dish from Madhya Pradesh, holds a special place in the hearts of food enthusiasts. The sun-kissed day unfolded with laughter, camaraderie, and the tantalizing aroma of freshly cooked Dal Bafale. Families gathered around the barbecue pits, skewering corn cobs. The party became a cherished chapter in MPAD's book of memories.

PROUD MOMENTS

MPAD extends heartfelt gratitude to Suroma Sinha ji. Her unwavering commitment to the community proved invaluable when she played a pivotal role in locating a missing child. Suroma ji exemplifies dedication to welfare work and serves as an inspiration to everyone. We deeply appreciate her presence in our MPAD family and extend our best wishes for her future endeavors!

Dr. Shilpa Kelkar ji, a prominent figure in dentistry, was recently featured in Living Magazine. Her unwavering support for women in her practice has made her a trailblazer. Hailing from Madhya Pradesh, she completed her bachelor's education in Indore. The MPAD organization extends heartfelt congratulations to her and wishes her continued success in all her endeavors.
