MPAD organizes cultural gatherings, sports activities, and social events throughout the year, creating meaningful opportunities to cultivate and promote the Hindi language, literature, and cultural heritage within our community. These events not only celebrate the values of liberty, freedom, and mutual respect in our adopted homeland but also provide children with enriching, firsthand experiences of their cultural roots.

Voices of Our Community

Testimonial – Sangeeta & Narendra Soni

"We recently moved to Dallas and joined MPAD just a few months ago. From the very first karaoke night, we felt warmly welcomed by a genuinely inclusive and vibrant group. MPAD has allowed our children to stay connected to our culture while giving us a sense of belonging and lifelong friendships. Thank you for making Dallas feel like home."
